

HOW RELATIONSHIPS DRIVE RESULTS

COURAGEOUS LEADERSHIP

Can you remember a time when you failed to speak up and it would have made a world of difference? When you dare to be vulnerable and honest, it results in better decision-making that leads you to success.

In this training, you are able to understand the power of speaking without fear of judgment or resentment. When you create a psychologically safe work environment, teams are empowered to share tough feedback, recognize mistakes, and keep moving towards their goals.

HOW TO BUILD RELATIONSHIPS THAT DRIVE RESULTS:

- Understand the intertwinement of trust and vulnerability
- Be courageous and transparent
- Define "bringing your true self to work"
- Release shame and embrace empathy
- Practice active listening skills, as well as how to give and receive feedback
